Dear Neighbors,

The Peters Township Library Foundation is extremely proud to support the Peters Township Public Library as they continue to open books, doors and minds in Peters Township since 1957. We hope you've experienced all that's new this year at your PA Forward Gold Star award-winning library.

We know this community loves to learn and recognizes top quality programming for all ages. Last year nearly 204,000 people visited the library and almost 12,000 ebooks and audiobooks were downloaded for FREE via Overdrive. Nearly 400 people joined us for our Foundation's first Novel November when we brought Yaa Gyasi, award-winning author of Homegoing, to the Bible Chapel's stage. Your amazing library adds nearly $5 million of services and resources to this community every year.

Our mission, to assist the Peters Township Public Library financially and with volunteer support, continues as we are in the midst of preparing for our second Novel November. Tim O'Brien, best-selling author of The Things They Carried, and new consultant for the popular tv series, This is Us, will take the stage at the Peters Township High School auditorium on November 7. We hope you'll visit the library or ptlibrary.org to purchase tickets soon. This event is the highlight of our Foundation-sponsored Vietnam War 2018 programming series, which includes Vietnam Memories videos that capture the stories of local Vietnam veterans and civilians. Watch them on the library's YouTube Channel.

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM

Your generous contribution allows us to boost financial support for the library outside of its regular operating budget and to support its mission in providing resources for lifelong learning to the residents of Peters Township. Each day, hundreds of individuals walk through the library's doors – everyone from local college students, business owners, families, retirees and more. As a donor, you recognize that libraries are the thread that holds together the fabric of our community.

We are currently seeking to expand our Library Foundation with individuals who have expertise in the areas of estate planning, event-planning, marketing, investing, grant-writing, planned giving and donor-retention.

Please send your letter of interest to Maura Kelly @ theptlibraryfoundation@gmail.com
